

Friday, 22 August

ST ANDREW'S
Fifth Theology
Symposium
2025

12:00pm Registration Table Open
Tea/Coffee available

PARALLEL SESSIONS

12:30pm Session 1 - Room 1

Dr Vicki Petrakis

Athanasius Contra Mundum: the "Pillar of the Church" and Neo-Nicene Politics in the Thought of Gregory Nazianzen

Session 1 - Room 2

Dr Peter McGregor

The Council of Nicaea and the Paradoxes of Faith, with a Focus on False Cataphaticism

1:10pm Session 2 - Room 1

Revd Dr Antonios Kaldas

Stranger than We Can Imagine: How recent developments in Consciousness Studies revive an ancient anthropology, give us new ways to express Nicene Christology, and make mystery cool again

Session 2 - Room 2

A/Prof. Philip Kariatlis

The Cross as Glory: Divine Manifestation and the Nicene Vision in St Athanasius' On the Incarnation

1:50pm Session 3 - Room 1

Prof. Neil Ormerod

The Council of Nicaea and the status of the divine processions

Session 3 - Room 2

Dr Samuel Kaldas

Nicaea and Athanasius in the Theology of Matthew the Poor

2:30pm Afternoon Tea Break

Program

- 3:00pm Session 4 – Room 1
Revd Anastasios Bozikis
“Not With the Jews”: Nicaea and the Case for an Uncommon Date of Easter.
- Session 4 – Room 2
Dr Joe Mock
Zurich and Nicaea: Bullinger and the Trinity
- 3:40pm Session 5 – Room 1
Bishop Silouan of Adelaide
The Pro-Nicene Theology, Personality and Legacy of St Basil the Great
- Session 5 – Room 2
Michael Kuznetzov (via ZOOM)
The Council of Nicaea and the Role of Athanasius the Great
- 4:20pm Afternoon Tea Break
- 4:50pm PLENARY SESSION
Welcome by the President of the NSW Ecumenical Council
- KEYNOTE ADDRESS
Prof. Lewis Ayres (via ZOOM)
Why is Nicaea Important?
- 6:00pm Group Photo and afternoon tea
- 6:40pm PLENARY SESSION
Prayer
Patriarchal Message
Welcome by the President and Dean of the College
- 7:00pm KEYNOTE ADDRESS
Prof. Peter Bouteneff
The Odyssey of the Homoousion
- 8:30pm Supper

Saturday, 23 August

ST ANDREW'S
Fifth Theology
Symposium
2025

7:00am Celebration of the Divine Liturgy in English
for the Leave-Taking of the Feast of Dormition of the Theotokos; St Irenaeus, Bishop of Lyons.
(Cathedral)

9:00am PLENARY SESSION
KEYNOTE ADDRESS

Very Revd Prof. John Behr FBA

*'God Stands in the Congregation of God':
Speaking of God Before and After Nicaea*

10:30am Morning Tea

PARALLEL SESSIONS

11:00am Session 6 - Room 1

Revd Prof. Demetrios Bathrellos (via ZOOM)
Nicaea's Insights into Primacy and Conciliarity

Session 6 - Room 2

Dr James Rutherford

*One God the Father Almighty?
Appropriating Augustine's Exegesis of Deuteronomy
6:4 in Response to the Challenge of Three Gods*

11:40am Session 7 - Room 1

Revd Canon Dr Mark D Thompson
Nicaea and Holy Scripture

Session 7 - Room 2

Dr Grahame Rosolen

Athanasius and his Christological Insights at Nicaea

Program

- 12:20pm Session 8 – Room 1
Revd Prof. Gerard Kelly
The Creed of Nicaea and Modern Ecumenical Efforts
- Session 8 – Room 2
Dr Andrew Mellas
The First Ecumenical Council of Nicaea in the Liturgical Imagination of Byzantium
- 1:00pm Session 9 – Room 1
Mr Lawrence Qummou
Salvific Logic: Nicaea and the God-world relationship
- Session 9 – Room 2
Fr Alexander Aziz and Mr Michael Ibrahim
The Symbol of Faith as a Symbol of Resistance: Polemical Utility of the Nicene/Constantinopolitan Creed in the Post-Chalcedonian Period
- 1:40pm LUNCH and Closing Remarks
- 2:30pm END OF THE SYMPOSIUM

Sunday, 24 August

- 7:30am Synodal Divine Liturgy, presided by His Eminence Archbishop Makarios of Australia and concelebrated with members of the Holy Eparchial Synod at the Cathedral of the Annunciation of the Theotokos in Redfern.