Sydney College of Divinity Renamed as the *Australian University College of Divinity

One of Australia's largest theological education providers has officially changed its name from Sydney College of Divinity to the Australian University College of Divinity, reflecting its national reach and continued commitment to high-quality education.

Founded in 1982, the Sydney-based institution has more than doubled in size over the past three years, with a footprint that now includes start-up colleges and ministry partnerships spanning Australia.

With more than 2000 students currently enrolled in the study of divinity, from diploma courses to doctoral research, the University College continues to play a vital role in shaping the nation's moral and cultural landscape.

The University College is a consortium of member institutions reflecting an ecumenical breadth with shared values and mission.

The Australian University College of Divinity will confer awards taught by the following member institutions:

Australian College of Christian Studies
Australian College of Ministries
BBI-TAITE
Catholic Institute of Sydney
Lachlan Macquarie Institute
NAIITS: An Indigenous Learning Pathway
Nazarene Theological College
Nisibis Assyrian Theological College
NSW College of Clinical Pastoral Education
Olivet Seminary
Perth Bible College
Planetshakers Bible College
Sparrow's College
St Andrew's Greek Orthodox Theological College
